SELECTING SUPERVISOR: CMSgt Van Grainge

VICE: McGrevy

Duties: Conducts training for worldwide capability to include initial and mission qualification as well as continuation, upgrade and specialized training. Training provided includes formal classroom instruction and on-the-job experience through flying simulated or real missions. Analyzes and interprets guidance, writes or modifies general guidelines from a broad scope of principles, concepts, technologies and methodologies to form lesson plans for flight training instruction. Evaluates training accomplishments to determine training effectiveness. Initiates and maintains training records. Reviews maintenance directives, bulletins and flight manuals that relate to Loadmaster to keep abreast of changes. Determines the adequacy of procedure and techniques for unit's mission, and recommend necessary changes. Performs staff work based on specialized knowledge of the unit's mission and the related programs to ensure safe and successful accomplishment of requirements. Takes necessary action to ensure all requisites involved in mission planning are identified, coordination and accomplished. Accomplishes a wide variety of pre-flight, in flight and post-flight duties required by the aircraft assigned to the mission, utilizing knowledge of the special equipment and systems of the aircraft. Serves as the aircrew expert on safety of flight matters involving aircraft weight and balance, aircraft structural limitation, specific aircraft systems, special shipment of hazardous materials and cargo requiring special handling in accordance with Air Force, DOD, NATO, and UN regulations and guidelines. Performs in the capacity of sky marshal. Perform duties and provides instructions pertinent to many of the following mission requirements; the movement of cargo using standard and mixed cargo loads of palletized cargo, rolling stock and outsized cargo destined for different ports on a single mission and preparation of complex load plans when necessary. Oversees and directs loading and unloading crews to ensure adherence to load plans. Makes independent, on-the-spot decisions to avoid disruption of aircrew flow.

DESIRABLES: Current and qualified HC-130(N) Instructor Loadmaster or (AFSC X1A271) Loadmaster or (AFSC X1A251). Operational Search and Rescue (SAR) flying experience in Alaska.

BRAC CLAUSE - As a result of the 2005 Defense Base Closure & Realignment Commission (BRAC), Kulis AGS AK is scheduled to relocate to Elmendorf AFB AK NLT 2011 at which time Elmendorf AFB will replace Kulis AGS as the "duty" location. Since Elmendorf is well within "commuting" distance of Kulis AGS (defined as 50 miles), employees will not be eligible for any relocation costs. Self-Executing Title 10 Orders for Federal Operational Missions: As a condition of employment, incumbent will be required to execute a voluntary consent statement which sets forth their consent to be recalled to Title 10 duty pursuant to 10 U.S.C.B 12301 (d) for federal operational missions. Specific SAR Alert Requirements: Search and Rescue (SAR) alert commitments necessitate that the incumbent reside within a one (1) hour drive radius from the SAR launch location. Incumbent will be required to perform SAR duties within the readiness postures as prescribed by the current MOU executed between the Alaska National Guard and the 11th Air Force regarding Search and Rescue support. Irregular Schedule & TDYs: Incumbent will be required to regularly perform irregular tours of duty, to include nights, weekends, and holidays. Incumbent may be required to perform extended duty periods away from home station and temporary duty (TDY) both in-state and out-of-state. Security Clearance Requirements: Incumbent must be able to qualify for and retain a minimum of a "secret" security clearance.
